

DISCUSS Everyday Heroes

IN YOUR COMMUNITY

You have now seen three stories from the DVD,
Everyday Heroes: Seeing Possibilities and Connecting the Dots.
Let's discuss the key character traits of each person in the video and then try to think of events that have happened in our own lives that have taught us similar lessons.

Everyday Hero: Barbara Koscak
Key Value: Commitment to a vision
Motto: You can fly!

What did Barbara Koscak decide to do when she was told she'd never be a pilot?

Discuss a time someone said something would be impossible but you found out later that you could do it in your own way.

Everyday Hero: Mike Fitzpatrick
Key Value: Compassion
Motto: See the possibilities to a fulfilling future.

What does Mike Fitzpatrick say you need to do in order to succeed in life?

Describe a time when you had a big decision to make. Who did you turn to for guidance in making a good decision?

Everyday Hero: Cheryl Angelelli
Key Value: Courage
Motto: Commit to a life without limitations

What did Cheryl Angelelli discover about courage when she learned she'd have to spend the rest of her life in a wheelchair?

Talk about a time in your life when you were scared of something. What did that event teach you about yourself?
